50c BELTS FOR 25c.
Six dozen only of Velvet, Peau de Soie and Taffeta Tailor-Made Belts, with front, back and side pieces.
Every belt is a 50c. value, but the small number we offer came to us at about half price, and that's the reason for the 25c. mark.

Corsets Especially Suitable For Shirt-Waists.
Correctness of fit is particularly necessary even in a low-priced garment when worn under a thin waist.
One of the best at 50c is made of a good quality of tape, straight front, medium length, bound with steel and trimmed with lace.
Two styles of C. B. at 75c. Both made of a fine quality of batiste—one has a low bust and short hip—the other has a medium bust and long hip. Trimmed with Val. Lace and ribbon.
A Thomson Glove-Fitting for $1.00 is made of batiste. Princess hip, medium bust, trimmed with beading and ribbon.
There's a small hook in front for the skirts.

PROF. MITCHELL ON MIRABEAU'S LIFE
A Most Interesting Address
Last Evening at the Woman's Club.
The first of a series of lectures by Professor S. C. Mitchell, under the auspices of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, was given at the Woman's Club last evening with great success. Professor Mitchell addressed a fine audience, with "Mirabeau" for his subject.
After sketching the causes which led up to the calling of the States General, May 5, 1789, which event marked the opening of the French Revolution, the speaker sketched briefly the previous life of Mirabeau, the central figure in that stormy period. Mirabeau was born at Bignon March 9, 1734, about the time that George Washington was in the home at Mount Vernon. His early life was stained by grave indiscretions, and he spent much of it in prison.
About the time that Lafayette was storming the heights of Yorktown, Mirabeau emerged from the dungeon of Vincennes, the court being led by his fiery eloquence to rescind the decree of death against him. Cast off by his wife, Mirabeau is found a penniless wanderer in Belgium and England, doing back work for booksellers on all imaginable terms. He was then thrown with Frederic the Great, and upon the impulse wrote a book on the Prussian monarchy. Such was the tempestuous and Don Quixote-like training of the young Hercules. He was forty years of age as in spite of his irreproachable past, he stepped proudly in the procession of Commissioners at the meeting of the States General, a Parliament for the French king had not summoned for 175 years, a fact which was characterized by the French monarch. "Though applause greeted at the roll call the names of all other deputies, that of Mirabeau was hoisted."
The lecturer then showed how Mirabeau, by his political sagacity and imperious will, came to dominate first this assembly, later the court, and finally the nation, curbing the wild forces of the Revolution by a skillful character directs his steeds. The policies of Mirabeau were then sketched. He alone realized the sweep of the Niagara current in which the French monarchy was caught. Mirabeau's resolution was unwilling to believe that the precepts were just ahead, and while the Jacobins yearned for the light to break upon the rocks below, Mirabeau sought to bring the monarchy by means of easy locks, to the level of liberty. In spite of the terrific force of that current, he might yet have saved the ship of state had it not been for his untimely death. Within less than two years from the hour his hand was placed upon the helm. In dying he said to Lafayette: "I take with me the last shreds of monarchy"—a prophecy that events soon made true.
Mirabeau's failure was due to the fact that the sins of his youth dogged him, destroying confidence in his character and thereby making void the wisdom of his purposes. Gravel, however, he had, but France said to him: "Ought thou to lack the character of a Washington, I hadst thou but that, thou, too, wouldst become the center of a nation's cause."

25c Paper-Bound Books For 10c Each.
Hundreds of them here and among the titles are many that possibly you'd not expect to find in paper binding, such as:
Black Rock, by Connor.
Three Guardsmen, by Dumas.
Mysteries of Paris, by Sue.
Pile 113, by Gaboriau.
Mucarla, Inez and Beulah, by Augusta Evans, a volume, latest book.
"The Spackled Bird," was so well received.
Last, but not least, in the estimation of the boys, anyway, we have a complete line of Henty's books in paper covers—10c each.
There's a 25c. value in Imperial Lined Writing Paper that we're selling for 15c. pound. Worth looking at, if you need stationery.

GOVERNOR IN NEW YORK
His Excellency Attends Banquet at the Waldorf.
CASE OF A MODERN MIDAS
Lady of Good Family Living Over Gold Mine, She Believes, Asks for Aid.
Mr. Doherty Disturbed Over Recent Court Decision.
Governor Montague is now in New York. Last night he attended a banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria, given by the New York Society of the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity in honor of the three members of the Greek College Society who are now Governors of States. They are Governors Odell, of New York; Bates, of Massachusetts, and Montague, of Virginia. The Virginia Executive will probably not return before Sunday night or Monday.
Mr. James B. Doherty, Commissioner of Labor, who has the interests of the workmen of the State at heart, has received the copy of a paper containing the decision of the Supreme Court of the State of Connecticut, holding the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of that State responsible in the sum of $25,000 for damages done to employees in a strike. The court is after all the money in the treasuries of the various street car organizations, and the men are very blue over the situation. Their contention is sympathized with by Mr. Doherty, but he finds his consolation in the fact that Virginians do not act disorderly when they refuse to work for their employers whom they believe are not treating them with proper consideration. It is well known that the street car men of Norfolk trouble mainly on the sympathizers of the men, rather than the street car men themselves. He thinks that the occasion will never arise when such a decision will be necessary in Virginia.
A lady of Halifax county writes a peculiar letter to Commissioner Kolmer, of the Department of Agriculture, in which she asks for the department's aid in a pair of rubber shoes and a mine inspector to examine her land, because she believes she has millions in gold. She is a modern Midas—all gold and no necessities of life.
This lady is the widow of a Mason and comes of excellent Virginia stock.

AMEND LAW AS TO JURORS
Hon. R. S. B. Smith Presents Some Important Bills in the House.
Two important bills were introduced by Mr. Blackburn Smith, of Clarke, at the session of the House of Delegates yesterday. The new Constitution makes it possible to have less than twelve jurors in certain cases, and one of these bills prescribes that a jury for the trial of misdemeanor cases, except petit larceny, shall consist of five jurors; and in cases of petit larceny shall consist of seven. The companion bill prescribes that in any case, unless one of the parties demand a trial by jury, the judge may, in his discretion, try the case by the court. The jury shall consist of twelve jurors, except that in appeals from justices of the peace the jury shall consist of five. In all other cases, pecuniary in their nature, when sounding in damages or when involving personal property, and the matter in controversy, exclusive of costs, is less in value or amount than five hundred dollars, the jury shall consist of seven. It is also provided that juries in any case may consist of such number less than the numbers named above by consent of parties entered on record. The verdicts found under these limitations are to have the same effect as if found by a jury of twelve.
These bills meet some widespread objections preferred against the present jury service, but it remains to be seen whether this time-honored institution of government can be disturbed in any particular.

WILL REPRESENT THE COMMITTEE
Rev. Mr. Campbell Already Has Visits from Morphine Fiends Who Want Cure.
The Rev. W. S. Campbell, secretary of the Bible Society of Virginia, has just accepted the position of representative in Virginia for the International Committee to Suppress Drug Addiction, of the work of which mention was made a day or two ago.
Mr. Campbell will seek to arouse interest throughout the State in the work of the committee. He is anxious for all those addicted to the use of morphine or other pernicious drugs, and who wish to be cured, to communicate with him. The fact that the applicant cannot afford to pay for the treatment he receives should not keep him back.
Already Mr. Campbell is being visited in reference to the head office in New York the case of a Richmond man who is a slave to the drug and who is anxious to save himself.

THE SUPPORT OF THE MINISTERS
Presbyterian Committee Sends Resolutions to All the Presbyteries.
The Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Committee on Ministerial Relief met a few days ago and discussed plans for organizing the work throughout the churches of the South. The following resolutions were adopted. They were communicated to the Presbyteries. The Presbyterian Committee on Ministerial Relief, and are hereby requested to hold at the approaching sessions of their presbyteries "popular meetings," and for the following purpose:
"First—To arouse an interest in this sacred cause more in keeping with its importance than is now prevalent in our church."
"Second—To secure the appointment by the Session of a permanent Committee on Ministerial Relief in each of our churches."
"Third—To advance by every way proper and practicable the movement inaugurated by the General Assembly for securing a permanent fund to supplement the annual collection, so that the aged and disabled ministers and the widows and orphans of the deceased ministers of our church may be more worthy recognition of our obligation to our divine Lord in this direction."
Mr. Gillis Elected.
At a meeting held Thursday night Mr. H. A. Gillis, superintendent of the Locomotive Works, was elected to succeed Mr. B. P. Johnson as chairman of the State Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association. Other officers were elected as follows:
Charles K. Willis, treasurer; L. A. Coulter, State secretary; J. E. Hubbard, college secretary; and W. Reginald Walker. The Executive Committee present at the meeting were H. A. Gillis, Langbourne M. Williams, J. Taylor Jollyson, W. M. Heblston, Charles K. Willis, L. A. Coulter.
Dr. Still Displeased.
Dr. R. T. Still returned yesterday from Richmond, where he had appeared before the Senate Committee on Public Institutions to testify in connection with the charges recently brought against the officials of the asylum at Petersburg. Dr. Still is bitter against the committee, and declared yesterday that it was evident from the start that the committee had its verdict made up before the evidence was heard. —Newport News Press.

MORE MONEY IS THE CRY
Revenue Bill Reported in the Senate.
INCLUDES THE MANN BILL
Committee Goes After Liquor Traffic in Vigorous Manner—Measure Made Special Order for Tuesday.
Dull Day in the House.

The chief matter of public interest in the Senate was the reporting of the general revenue bill, which was, on motion of Mr. Wickham, made a special order for 12:15 P. M. on Tuesday.
The Mann liquor bill is reported as an amendment to the revenue measure, though not in the form in which it was originally offered. The latest exemption clause lets out towns of 500 and over and all watering places and summer resorts. Chairman Wickham and Boaz are of opinion that the amendment will go through the Senate and be agreed to by the House. The revenue bill doubles the tax on all liquor dealers, and it is said that the additional tax will amount to $100,000 in round figures. Another interesting change in the reduction of the tax on premium receipts of insurance companies from 11-12 to 1 per cent.
There were many other amendments and they were ordered to be printed.
The report of the Public Institutions Committee, vindicating Dr. Drewry, of the Central State Hospital, was submitted and adopted, and the Corporation Commission bill was taken up and made a special order for 10:30 o'clock to-day.
The Burdette bill to prevent the enticing away of servants was engrossed, and Senator Moore offered his resolution to amend the Constitution so as to make the temporary registration clause of the suffrage ordinance permanent. Senate floor action on the bill was deferred until the next Tuesday.
The Speaker named Messrs. Davis, Gent, Fetherston, Rice and Sipe a committee to act on the bill to carry out the objects of the Haylee Lee statue bill. A measure was passed to protect firms, corporations, etc., in the use of their labels. Among the bills offered by Mr. Allen to make registrars were by Mr. Smith, to amend the law in relation to trial by jury.
The Senate.
The Senate proceedings were opened without prayer.
Mr. Kezwell, from the Committee for Public Institutions and Education, reported without amendment House bill No. 107, to repeal an act entitled an act to incorporate High Point Academy, in Grayson county.
Mr. Kezwell, from the same committee, reported with amendments House bill No. 44, to amend and re-enact sections 1862, 1863, 1864, 1865, 1867, 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878,
